THE SENATE'S STAB TO UNIVERSAL PEACE.

(N. Y. American)

To the United States Senate, in its quibbling wisdom, our country and civilization are indebted for the destruction of the most hopeful movement for universal peace that the century has known.

These great treaties with England and France would have been followed swiftly by similar treaties with other great nations, and so along the peaceful line of arbitration wars and slaughter would have been banished from the world.

The Senate has killed these treaties. The president will scarcely insult England and France with the presentation of these chopped-to-pieces documents, which carry neither force nor meaning in their terms.

Lawyers are able and fully as impartial as any that the Senate holds have declared that no possible "prerogative" of the Senate was endangered by these international agreements. And who would weigh a "Senatorial prerogative" against the world's peace? This country, already growing weary of the abuses of "Senatorial prerogative" and "Senatorial courtesy," will receive in the action of Thursday a fresh inspiration to the demand for their reform.

CHAMP CLARK'S WONDERFUL GROWTH

That was a fine tribute from a virile foe whom Joe Cannon paid to Champ Clark on the floor of the house last week.

"No one would be more forceful in the White House than Mr. Clark. At times I have felt his opposition keenly, but his is a manly contest, he always strikes above the belt."

And it was Leader Mann of the Republican minority who said four months ago:

"Champ Clark is the bravest, squarest man in all the Democratic host. He is worthy of any office in the republic, from the Presidency down."

And it was a great popular Democrat who recently declared:

"Champ Clark has the humor of Lincoln, the kindness of McKinley and the courage of Andrew Jackson."

The opinion is growing day by day throughout the Democratic ranks that this big, rugged Missourian, with his massive integrity, his unimpeachable record, that needs neither explanation nor defense, his superb service as leader and harmonizer of the Democratic majority, and his familiarity with Congress and public life, is the one man upon whom the divided Democracy of the country can harmonize at Baltimore and win at the November polls.

SOCIALIST LECTURE COURSE

Opening Address Was Well Received By Large Audience.

Edward Adams Cantrell addressed a moderate sized but highly appreciative audience in Prettymann's Opera House last Friday night. Those who attended have been outspoken in their praise of the gifted orator who forced and held their attention throughout the time of his address. Mr. Cantrell surprised his hearers by his moderate tone, supplying the place of perfunctory utterance with sound logic and ingenious reasoning. Should he return to Clifton, he would have a much larger audience.

The next lecture will be held at the same hall March 29th. The speaker of the evening is N. A. Richardson, of California, a prominent educator, who will explain "Why Things Happen to Happen." Mr. Richardson has been well received elsewhere in Arizona where he has addressed large audiences.

DOROTHY MCLEVE HERE AGAIN

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
